Hi Dante,

I reviewed the table of responses and the entire red-line version of the ROD by CBI.
I have made some additional revisions, changed some of my responses, edited some of the suggested revisions by CBI, and other changes, in both documents.

They are both attached.

How did the call go?

Thanks,

Thanks, Dante.

Not sure I will be able to join in on the call, but I am definitely interested in two things:

1. how the call goes, synopsis from your perspective of how HQ reacts to the responses we have put together, and next steps and timing for release of the Final ROD to BLM.
2. a thorough review of the red-line version of the ROD responses to date (after CBI completes theirs, or your review and finalization of all responses).

Thanks, and have a great weekend!
Jeryl

Just spoke with David and he said they finished responding to everything. He is just now incorporating edits from one of his people and then will send it to me. I'll work through it today. Hopefully they really did get through everything! I'll give you a report-out at the end of the day.

Hey Dante,

That's okay.

You can send me the call-in information, and I will see if I can make it.

How is CB&I doing with their responses?

Thanks,

Jeryl

Hey Jeryl,

Don't recall if I informed you that HQ was not able to do the call today. Sorry if I left you hanging, hope I didn't. I will talk to Christine tomorrow as originally schedule, but I understand if you aren't able to join.

Thanks, Dante.

I am holding 1 pm time slot open for a call.

If you like I can provide a call in number.

Have you heard from David on how they are doing?

I am training a new person for the AML Program today, and have two interviews to conduct for another new staff this afternoon, beginning at 2:30, but I will try to spend another hour on the ROD in between now and then.

Thanks,

Hey Jeryl,

Most of the HQ comments can be accommodated, I think, with some clarification. Most of those I assigned to CBI, at least of those comments I had read. We can't just tell HQ that we won't address their comment, unless it is for a very specific reason. I'll see if they can move the call with us to this afternoon.

Okay, here's my version with yours and my responses.

I didn't get to all of them, but pretty close to the end.

Hi Dante,

I am making slow progress on the ROD comments by HQ.

I have read through most of their comments and have reached a conclusion, and have a recommendation.

Conclusion: They do not have the background to understand the statements that were carefully crafted by us, that were also integral to the FS and to the Proposed Plan. Many of their suggestions for changes to language cannot be accommodated.

Recommendation: I think you should just issue a standard email to them thanking them for their careful review and comments, and that we will focus our efforts on the big picture issues addressed in the body of Christine's email.

I don't believe there is a definitive requirement for how we have to handle HQ comments. Is there?

I think we should try to schedule a call for tomorrow to discuss further.

Once I finish what I can today with my responses and comments review I will send you my ROD version.

I am reluctant at this point to spend much more time on all the individual comments imbedded in the document, but I will continue for now.

Thanks,

Jeryl R. Gardner, P.E., C.E.M.

I got up to page 46 in dividing up the comments between CBI or Jeryl. I'm sure that will give both parties plenty of work for tomorrow. See my comments inside each of the HQ comments, in the Word doc.

David – touch base with Jeryl as needed tomorrow to coordinate. Thanks!
